Prof. Dr. T. Anithakumary
Holder of the »Gundert Chair«

Summer School on Malayāḷam Literature and Screen Adaptions

WHEN: Monday, 1 August 2022 – Friday, 5 August 2022 &
Monday, 8 August 2022 – Friday, 12 August 2022
   Daily 9 am – 5 pm (with breaks)
WHERE: 72074 Tübingen, Keplerstr. 2, Room 002
   (Only in exceptional cases, online participation will be made possible.)

The Summer School aims to study the interconnection between Malayalam literature and cinema. Especially between 1960 and 1980 novels, short-stories, poetry and drama became the basis of movies. The examples chosen will focus on cinematic adaptations like Marthandavarma, Newspaper Boy, Bhargaveenilayam and Chemmeen, just to name a few, and film makers like Adoor Gopalakrishnan, who have a place in the history of world cinema.

Requirements: Basic knowledge of Malayalam desirable, suitable for beginners.
Further information & application: Prof. Dr. Heike Oberlin | heike.oberlin@uni-tuebingen.de
Deadline for application: 1 July 2022
   – no participation fees –