Originators: Transformation and Collaboration in the Production of Original Written Artefacts

Edited by Janine Droese, Ulla Kypta, Uta Lauer, and Jörg B. Quenzer with the assistance of Laura Schmalfuß

Every volume of manuscript cultures has been subjected to a double-blind peer review process and is openly accessible at no cost on the CSMC website <<https://www.csmc.uni-hamburg.de/publications/mc.html>>. We would like to thank the German Research Foundation (DFG) for its generous support of the Cluster of Excellence EXC 2176 'Understanding Written Artefacts', which has made the printing of this journal volume possible.

INDEX OF WRITTEN ARTEFACTS

The index includes all written artefacts discussed in this book, such as archival documents and manuscripts, cast bronze baptismal fonts and drawings made as part of a performance. All written artefacts are listed under the city name of the present holding institution, followed by the name of the institution (in the original language) and the collection (if any). Written artefacts with a common or established name used in the book are also listed accordingly (e.g. Godescalc Gospel Lectionary, Heike nôkyô and Human Writes Drawings). Manuscripts that are referred to with RISM sigla in this book are equally listed under these sigla, as are other manuscripts referred to with common abbreviations. Page numbers with an asterisk refer to illustrations.
